MISSION

To preserve, research, archive, educate, promote, and provide access to artifacts, recordings, and stories of Indiana music; to honor those individuals, artists and organizations who have contributed, to educate Hoosiers and other interested individuals as to the significance of our music history, and help them develop greater pride in our state's accomplishments in the field of music.

Founded in 2015, Indiana Entertainment Foundation) is an Indiana nonprofit with 501(c)3 status.

Indiana Music History Project is our primary initiative.

WHAT WE DO

Indiana Music History Gallery in Broad Ripple, open free to the public M-F 9-5 featuring exhibits, memorabilia and Indiana Music Kiosk listening station.

External exhibitions at Indiana State Library, the central Branch of Indianapolis Public Library, The Kurt Vonnegut Museum and Library, and Indianapolis International Airport.

Indiana Music Archive, more than 5,000 Indiana records, tapes, compact discs, posters and memorabilia.

Digital preservation of audio, video, and images.

IndianaMusicpedia.com documents Indiana musicians and music businesses. 20,000+ page views in 2023.

Indiana Music Radio, streaming on Live365.com.

Fiscal and promo partner with Brent Wallarab on his jazz projects, including the award winning Gennett Suite.
